

From: kate.
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 4:31pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Settling is a horrible idea, prosecute their monopolistic selves until they allow free market competition. While I believe strongly that their products are unreliable and shoddy enough to drive them out of business on merit alone, their market share forbids this and they strive to maintain this with every move they make and every condescending idea they throw at the government to let them off with a mere telling off when they deserve to be broken in to tiny pieces on the floor.

Catherine Jenkins
State College, Pennsylvania.